Wedding Celebrations

You may remember in Buddy Bulletin 4 (October 2017) SoSBB's percussionist Philippa Brettall was surprised at the joint concert with Cradley Heath Male Voice Choir, when her partner Darren Hillman proposed during the programme.

SoSBB was delighted on 30th June to play at their beautiful wedding. The sun shone on New Road Methodist Church, Stourbridge, which had been decorated by Philippa in a beautiful musical theme, including the fantastic floral table decorations and Philippa's bouquet which was crafted from sheet music.

Philippa processed to Bach's Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring, and the band provided the musical accompaniment for the hymns.
Cradley Heath Male Voice Choir performed during the signing of the registers and the happy couple processed as Mr and Mrs Hillman to Handel's Entrance of the Queen of Sheba before joining friends and family for their celebratory reception.

SoSBB wishes Darren and Philippa a lifetime of happiness.

Pershore Midsummer Festival of Brass

SoSBB again delighted audiences in July at the annual Pershore Midsummer Festival of Brass.

Performing firstly a majestic programmes of music in the magnificent Pershore Abbey, followed by a lighter programme at The Angel Inn, audience participation was encouraged and the band was delighted to see onlookers dancing to a mamba and singing to The Proclaimers '500 miles'. SoSBB very much looks forward to attending in 2019.
